25X1A	1. The statement was made recently be Edvard Kardelj, Yugoslav Foreign Affairs Minister, that free enterprise in Yugoslavia will be free only insofar as details of factory administration are concerned. The Yugoslav Government will erect the necessary buildings, plan the production for each plant and appoint factory managers. Managers who fail in their specific assignment will be subject to punishment. Reportedly, Kardelj stated that it will be some time before any improvement in living conditions will be noticed. New prices are to be regulated in such a way that the new increased income will correspond to the former in term of commodities. 25X1A 2.
